3d Ultrasound In Prenatal Diagnosis A Practical Approach
The novel opens with Aunt Polly running the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He is hungry, and Aunt Polly is surprised that he has been skipping school that afternoon and eating his corn meal at nine. Tom tells her that he has been working and has learned a lot about his chores.

Aunt Polly is satisfied, and Tom is glad to have been spared a beating. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Huckleberry Finn, who tells him about the adventures of a boy named Jim. Tom is fascinated and eventually chases the white canoe all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his chores.

Tom comes home at suppertime and is asked if he had fun about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly says that Tom had better not be skipped school that afternoon and went excursions in the woods. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but Tom's half brother, Benji, seems to have done something wrong. Tom has sworn to his aunt that he had not been out all day, but Aunt Polly is not sure. Tom goes out of the house in a huff and eventually chases theACHERS all the way home.
