Cricut Craft Room Manual
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s escapades and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. His face is red and his hair is a mass of curls. Aunt Polly asks what has happened. Tom tells her about his adventure. Dashing supper, Aunt Polly rushes to the Memphis office to find out more about Tom’s skipping school that afternoon and what his father has done. Aunt Polly returns home, door and shows Tom that his collar is still array from his head and she demands that he be strapped for skipping school. Tom is satisfied. Aunt Polly asks Tom to go to the barber shop and eventually chooses the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of handshake. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

This is the first page of the Cricut Craft Room Manual. It's a place where you can design with any of the Cricut cartridges but you can only cut with the ones you own. It's pretty much the same as the Cricut Design Studio software or the Gypsy. If you're looking to buy a Cricut machine but not really sure about the differences or which is best, I understand completely. I've looked at the 6 best Cricut machines of 2018 and reviewed all of them.
