Life After Cancer In Adolescence And Young Adulthood The Experience Of Survivorship
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misconduct and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom runs home to snoop around the house to find out if his father is at home. Tom has plans for an adventure that will be skipped school that afternoon and go across the river to a deserted and uncrowded island. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out of the house in his own clothes. The sun is shining, and it doesn't rain. Tom says, "It never rains but it pours!"

When he returns home, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of tackle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
