Seminars In Nephrology Genetic And Genetic Testing In Kidney Disease Volume 30 Number 4
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowling the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper to find Polly weeping. She has heard about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom to make up for the day he was skipped school that afternoon and went fishing. Tom lazily washes his hands and when Aunt Polly is satisfied, Tom barks the chant himself to disguise his labour.

Tom goes out of the house in search of Tom, but finds Tom’s half-brother, Sid, at the front gate. Sid is disappointed and apologetic.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get Jim to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of whistle. Jim accepts eagerly, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time and brings in a little bag full of dirt. He tells her that he has been skipping school that afternoon and went to a place where he can see the river and hunt for turtles. Tom's half-brother, Sid, is at the door, also with a bag of mud. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house into the street. He is soiled and wet from the rain, and he is wearing a coat which does not fit him. Aunt Polly is very angry and says, "You look like a hobo!"

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiterwash the fence. As he passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble, he almost agrees, but Aunt Polly refuses and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
