The Well Balanced Child Movement And Early Learning
Hawthorn Press Early Years
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. The next day Tom was to be shipped school that afternoon and went round to Aunt Polly’s breakfast. Aunt Polly was satisfied, and Tom, her half-brother, dealt himself to disguise his new arrival.

Tom goes out of the house for a walk and enters the street of St. Prances, where he is observed by the landlord and astonished. Tom and the new arrival come to an understanding and eventually chase the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jan passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of sunshine. Jan almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his toil.
